^{*}Expenses associated with responding to the incidents of unperformed roll calls
In its response to the administrative disposition revoking permission for its general motor truck transportation business, received on June 25, 2025, Japan Post Co. expects that this will have an impact on net income (loss) from the postal and domestic logistics business. Of this impact, an increase of approximately ¥6.5 billion in collection, transport and delivery outsourcing expenses can be predicted with a high degree of certainty at present.
